When I pioneered the Tantra & Sexual Healing movement here in Atlanta starting in 1997, what I observed, was a lot of men who were looking for a way to experience the emotional & sexual connection they had lost with their partners... especially once children arrived...

Sensual massage was a way for them to experience what they felt was missing...and not feel like they were cheating on their partners...whom they love dearly but are not getting their sexual need met. I feel this is the HEART of the matter!

We have all tried many ways to experience validation and emotional connection through our sexuality. I feel what most men experience from the sensual massage offered currently here in Atlanta...is no more than a quick fix and manipulation of their sexual need to be received fully by a woman...

Unfortunately what is usually offered is not much more than to... get you up...get you off...and get you out of there...with or without naked!
While there is nothing wrong with an erotic experience...

The problem is that within hours, days or weeks..however long it takes for you... You are right back where you started from!! With nothing to show for your time & money...you are little more than the proverbial hamster who runs the wheel!
(There are always exceptions to this of course)

The deep relaxation you seek will never happen through ejaculation... sorry if I disillusion you! Relaxation & release come from within and you are in control!

I am so grateful for the individuals who have come for sessions with me already, for sharing their stories, for their courage, fortitude & willingness to discover their deepest yummy places within!

These individuals allowed me the honor of their unconditional trust in my ability to guide them to the center of their core Inner Orgasmic Vibrational Being...back to the place within of Pure & Innocent wholeness, fully complete & fully conscious of their Divine Sacred Sexual Self...if only for a moment they glimpsed...the inner truth... Truth that lives forever...

In my experience working with men & women for the past 15+ years, most men have never been fully received unconditionally by a woman, as well as most women have never been fully received the way a woman naturally loves...as a Mother...by her man!
(women's update coming soon!)

I know the place you seek... but have not found...and not for the lack of trying!
I am your guide for this Incredible journey! I'll take you there...
I will teach you how to take your partner there with you by penetrating her heart first!

SHAMANIC TANTRIC MASSAGE FOR MEN (formerly Kashmiri)

We all reach a point as men (and women) when we look at mere sex and exclaim—sex is great stuff—but there has to be more to it than I am experiencing. I will show you what seems to be missing, and how to release the pattern forever in the understanding of our sexual natures. It is easier than you think...

ALL other aspects of your Life Energy (Chakras). What happens then...?

Together, we release YOUR Power to fully embrace all aspects of your Being in divine union within. This is a sacred marriage of you with You—between your own inner masculine and feminine. The Yin-Yang of a Whole Person.

Only then can you can invite the Sacred back to the bedroom and into your own morality! Open YOURSELF now, at last, and your entire Being will fill with the love that exists—has always existed—trapped deep within you.

I provide a safe environment to experience your loving in a whole new way. By adding insight to experience, you evolve into that Divine Lover and Real Man you always knew deep inside that you could be.

Cheri

Expand, feel safe and open your heart. -

A lot of affectionate proximity - being held and gently rocked.

Calm-flowing strokes, that get under the skin and activate the bodys energy centers.

The Shamanic Tantric massage is slower, calmer and even more nourishing than the Tantric massage alone. It will touch your soul in the most loving way!

The intimate areas are touched, yet orgasm is not the focus, but rather riding your wave of internal BLISS that takes you beyond ejaculation!

The Energetic "O" experience...

A beautiful experience for those, who would like to feel comfortable and secure within their own body and are willing to experience love without agenda!

This session is no longer offered as a first session with me... you may chose this exquisite hour and a half session to extend the introductory initiation session at an additional $250.00.
